

NAVARRO COLLEGE

Warning – Assumption of Risk

There are many special benefits from the activity being afforded to student/athletes by the softball program at Navarro College. Within the activities it must be understood that there are dangers that lead to injury to student/athletes. Therefore the purpose of this section is to make all student/athletes aware that dangers do exist and that participation is voluntary with the understanding that risks are involved. It is to be further understood that student/athletes must share in this responsibility of their own safety and the safety of others as each participates in the softball camp at Navarro College.

The student/athlete participating in the softball camp at Navarro College could injure the anatomy of either one or several of the following; musculo-skeletal system, nervous system, circulatory system, respiratory system, digestive system, urinary system, reproductive system, endocrine system and skin. Catastrophic injuries such as death, permanent paralysis and loss of organs may occur during sport participation. There is not an absolute preventative against any injury. Navarro College does not offer supplemental insurance to participate in the softball camp at Navarro College. Any injury sustained by the student/athlete will be resolved by their own means.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read the “Warning-Assumption of Risk” statement above and are aware there is a possibility you may incur an injury of varying temporary or permanent disability to any of the body’s systems. Also, you acknowledge risk of death, permanent paralysis, and loss of organs and life-long disability that may occur as a result of the softball camp at Navarro College. Additionally, you agree to release Navarro College from any liability with regards to any injury sustained.

Before you are approved to participate, you are required to sign below acknowledging the above statements.
